Case Name: Ada County Commissioners (McIntyre complaint)

County: Ada

Report by: Tami J. Faulhaber

Reviewed by: Steve Benkula

SYNOPSIS:

On January 2, 2015, I met with Vicky McIntyre, the Ada County treasurer, to receive documents she had that related to her complaint to the Office of the Attorney General (OAG).

INVESTIGATIVE INFORMATION:

1. During this unrecorded meeting, Ms. McIntyre made the following statements:
 - a. Her complaint to the OAG is in “retaliation” for what the Ada County Commissioners have done.
 - b. Ms. McIntyre fired her second-in-command, Lyn Call, for insubordination. Ms. Call had worked for Ada County for 18 years.
 - c. After Ms. McIntyre fired Ms. Call, the commissioners hired Ms. Call. The commissioners created a new office, solely to handle the trash contract. Ms. Call was hired to run this office, and given two employees. These employees had previously worked for the Treasurer’s Office and were the two most senior employees.
 - d. Ms. Call makes $84,000 per year, supervising two employees and handling only the trash contract.
 - e. The commissioners rewrote the trash contract, removing the treasurer as the overseer of that contract. The commissioners also rewrote a city ordinance removing the treasurer from the ordinance’s verbage.

2. I received multiple documents from Ms. McIntyre that will be added to the case file.
